What's New In Break Video Downloader?

Download Break videos with just a few clicks using Break Video Downloader! Break Video Downloader is an easy to use application that helps you download Break videos with just a few clicks. If you are a Break user and wish to save some of your favorite clicks, it's almost impossible not to try this application. Especially designed to download one video at a time as fast as possible, Break Video Downloader relies on an innovative approach to deal with user selected clips. The program requires users to search for a certain Break video to download before anything else, with the process taking only a few seconds. While the results are provided by Google Custom Search, it's enough to pick the desire clip, drag its link displayed in the main window over the app logo and wait. The download process goes very fast, but this also depends on your Internet connection. A progress bar appears over the search box to let you track the download, but it usually goes pretty fast. There are no configuration options and this is the main drawback of the app. Files are downloaded in the FLV format, so you are not allowed to set up compression or any other format. Not to mention that it doesn't even give you the option to change the output location... Break Video Downloader works okay on all Windows versions, but an Internet connection is needed and the faster it is, the quicker the download is completed. All in all, Break Video Downloader is an interesting idea, but it needs a lot of improvements to become a top product.
