How to change the color of the border of a UITableViewCell - jwilliams ===== byrneseview The best way to do this for the vast majority of cases is to subclass UITableView and add this to the setter for _selectedBackgroundView: tableView.tableViewLayout.rowSize =.large This will allow you to use tableView:heightForRowAtIndexPath to give your cell's height what it needs to grow. ~~~ jwilliams No you don't need to do that. If you want the border on top (and bottom) but not on the sides, you just can't change the cell's selectedBackgroundView height. ~~~
