Keymacro is a personal development tool designed to assist people in choosing the right life path. Developed with a strong focus on personal growth and self realization, Keymacro teaches people to think about themselves, instead of the traditional concept that focuses on material things. Users can develop and organize their personal resources in a way that ensures they are always prepared for the future. KEYMACRO is a simple application, with the user interface being very simplistic and easy to understand, it is a tool that is very similar to a personal diary. Features include a timeline, a calendar, task list and notes. There is also a search function, the ability to sync with online calendars and an optional to-do list. It is obvious that KEYMACRO is not something that is designed to be a life changing tool, but it is a very helpful application that provides a solution to those who want to improve and gain more self respect. Vitalik Concept Description: Designed to be a life changing tool, with a strong focus on self realization, Vitalik Concept attempts to provide a simple solution to the idea of turning your life around. The app provides a schedule for people to use, that is divided into four simple categories. These include life events, goals, self awareness and self realization. A simple set of features, Vitalik Concept is easy to use, especially for users who want to establish their personal life path. The main benefit of Vitalik Concept is it makes the important aspects of a person's life accessible, with the idea that it is a tool that can be used to determine your life path. The application is very simple, straightforward and easy to use, making it a useful tool for people who want to find their path in life. The focus on life changing is a great idea, however, Vitalik Concept is more of a personal management solution than a life changing one, with Vitalik Concept offering a simple set of features for a personal diary.
